Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the throat, lungs, and chest, is gratefully acknowledged; and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it specially allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the cause, cures the cough, it frequently enables the sufferer to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Londonderry Vt

LEBANON, 17th 1853

Rev Walter Clark Dear Sir—I feel it my duty to inform you what benefit I received from your Universal Cough Mixture. For a long time I had been afflicted with a severe cough, which baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in this section of country. I had tried almost every remedy recommended for the cough, but found no relief. At length I was induced to try your Universal Cough Mixture. I had taken but one bottle before I found relief, and before I had taken the second bottle I was entirely cured, and have had no cough since. I do say it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly

JESSE HAYES

From Mr. Fletcher Cook, agent for North Dover, Maine

DEAR SIR—A number of the most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Silvester Ho had laboured a years standing, and had been with by been doctored six months without receiving any benefit, have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture

From Mrs. Hubbard, Thorndike, Me

February 1 1854

To Rev Walter Clark Dear Sir—This certifies that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and soreness of the lungs, which I had taken many kinds of medicine and had been about the care of several physicians without obtaining the least relief. Hearing of your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me, which I procured and began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I acted as Commissioner of Patents R H EDDY, Esq., of Boston did business at the Patent Office as an Attorney. There were few if any persons who practiced in the Patent Office, and still fewer who so much immediate business. I have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Eddy is a man of strict integrity and honor, and one who conducted his business with ability and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most efficient Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in saying that any person who may employ him may rely confidently upon his receiving the most careful and faithful attention to his case, and that he is a person entirely worthy and capable of putting in motion the machinery of the Patent Office, and of conducting it successfully through all its complicated details.

EDMUND BURKE

"August 17, 1855—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents R H Eddy Esq of Boston has been extensively engaged in procuring patents. I have had much official intercourse with him, and have always found him entirely worthy of confidence. He is one of the most capable and successful practitioners at the Patent Office, and in addition to this he is a gentleman of high standing and honorable character.

THE BOSTON JOURNAL

has for many years confessedly stood at the head of the newspaper press of New England This position was attained not through any special effort on the part of its publishers to increase the circulation by agents or other unusual means but because it has proved to be such a paper as every moral, intelligent man in the community might with propriety introduce into his family circle, to be read by his children and from which he might draw for them both instruction and entertainment. With such a character it has earned the position it occupies and the fact that its circulation is much larger than any other paper in Boston or New England, is the clearest proof of the estimation in which it is held by the reading community.

It is our purpose now to greatly extend the circulation of the Weekly Journal Preparatory to doing this, we have procured

New and Beautiful Type, with which to print it, and have also ordered one of

Hoe's Six Cylinder Fast Presses,

with which we can print FIFTEEN THOUSAND COPIES AN HOUR This press will enable us to hold back our forms to a very late hour for important news and yet work off the edition in season for the mails With this improvement in our printing department we believe we can give our readers a handsome paper as to printed in New England The general character of the paper has proved so acceptable that we shall attempt no change It is and will be emphatically

A Family Newspaper.

We intend that it shall become complete record of the events of the age in which we live that the attractive and careful reader of its pages shall be able to gather from them a literate and reliable information of every event of interest in politics the arts and sciences, morals and religion in this country and foreign lands, and that they shall have this information at an earlier day than they can obtain it from any other source This is effected by the intelligence from all parts and different sources which it is to be sought to separate the wheat from the chaff and to arrange and present it to the reader, in a concise and intelligible form at a cost requiring not only a great expenditure of money but also days of labor We have the services of MEN EDUCATED FOR THE BUSINESS to devote the matter for the JOURNAL and we shall spare no expense to enable them to do their work in the most thorough manner

The COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT of the JOURNAL is second to that of no other weekly paper in New England It embraces a carefully corrected PRICES CURRENT; a REVIEW OF THE MARKET for the week stating the amount of business in the different articles of merchandise and the variations in prices, a separate article on the MONEY MARKET original reports of the Brighton and Cambridge CATTLE MARKETS, the New York CAPITAL MARKET, SHIP NEWS &c These reports are all prepared by men of large experience, thoroughly conversant with the department under their charge, and they are now relied upon by thousands of merchants and traders throughout the country, to guide them in their purchases and sales

The LITERARY DEPARTMENT will embrace reviews and extracts from advance copies of the works issued by the leading publishing houses throughout the country In this way the readers of the JOURNAL get the cream of the Literature of the century, and are enabled to select from the flood of new books issued such as they may desire for their centre tables or the shelves of their libraries

In the MISCELLANOUS DEPARTMENT we shall make provision for the entertainment and instruction of our young friends—the children A story—calculated to improve the mind and heart, while it furnishes entertainment for the passing hour, will be a prominent feature in this department.

THE BOSTON DAILY JOURNAL

(Morning or evening edition, as may be desired,) is sent to subscribers by mail, in any part of the United States, for SIX DOLLARS a year By means of fast Presses we are able to keep the forms for the DAILY JOURNAL open several hours later than any other daily paper, and thus not unfrequently to publish important news from TWELVE to TWENTY-FOUR HOURS IN ADVANCE The average circulation of the DAILY JOURNAL is more than double that of any subscription or two cent paper published in Boston

THE SEMI WEEKLY JOURNAL,

containing all the reading matter of the Daily—is published TUESDAY and FRIDAY mornings, at FOUR DOLLARS a year

BOSTON JOURNAL FOR CALIFORNIA

is printed on the 4th and 19th of each month, for mailing by the steamers of the 6th and 20th It is made up with the greatest care for the information of New England men in California, Over TWELVE THOUSAND COPIES a month are now sent there, which is a much larger circulation than any other paper printed in the Atlantic States has It is mailed at this office for SIX CENTS a copy A person sending one dollar can have one each of sixteen numbers sent to any one they may desire ☞ Agents and Newsmen supplied with either Edition of the JOURNAL, on the most liberal terms.

Orders for either edition of the JOURNAL must be invariably accompanied by the CASH and should be addressed to Judge Davis's Opinion.

We present below the opinion of Judge Davis respecting the time when the Constitutional amendments took effect—given in the case of the Cumberland Sheriffey.

The opinion was hurriedly drawn up,—but the questions at issue are ably and clearly discussed, and the case presented in such a manner, as we think, to convince every candid man of the rightfulness of the decision. The Argus and other hunker papers fall to and abuse the Judges, who have given an opinion adverse to the interests of the newly appointed officers, and threaten to demolish the Court—but we believe that both Judge Davis and Judge Tenney, if the latter has made a decision, have given entirely disinterested opinions, upon the cases presented to them, which they could not avoid deciding if they would—and that these opinions have been given without any party bias whatever. The question involved, is one of far greater importance than merely who shall hold the offices—it affects the legality of every act performed by the officers in question, and it is of the highest consequence that no illegal officers should be allowed to officiate.

Upon a view of the whole matter—considering the fact that the operation of the amendments has been repeatedly brought to the notice of the party in power—it is astonishing that Gov. Wells and his advisers should have recklessly and with headlong speed, undertaken to remove nearly all the officers throughout the State, whose places have been made elective by the Constitution, and assume to make new appointments thereto. Discretion would have dictated at least a resort to the opinion of the Supreme Court before undertaking to make the removals. It would have saved the administration from rushing, at the very outset of its career, into so ridiculous and embarrassing a position as that which it now bids fair to occupy. The removals, however, show a reckless disregard of the people's will, which is in perfect correspondence with the mania for undoing everything which has been done for the last few years.

The Portland Advertiser, after commenting upon Judge Davis's decision, says:

Though this decision is not final, we believe those who have provoked it will derive no benefit from that fact. But we trust that they will be induced to pause in their headlong course, and no doubt of the extensive powers which they arrogate to themselves. And while they are about it, they might as well review and purify their motives—for this judicial rebuke will be but a faint foreshadowing of the indignant overthrow which they will receive at the hands of the people. The signs are gathering fast.

The Amendments of the Constitution.

S. J. Court, Cumberland Co., Jan. Term, 1856.

Seward M. Baker of Windham, and Daniel C. Emery of Gorham, claimed each to be the Sheriff of the County of Cumberland. The commission of the former is dated Feb. 21st, 1854, and that of the latter Jan. 17th, 1856. The former has officiated in Court until the sixth day of the term; and the latter now applies to the Court to be recognized in his official capacity. Upon such application the Court will assume no authority to determine which of the parties is, under the constitution, the sheriff of the county; nor will the court interpose between the claimants, except so far as it may be necessary for its own protection, and the transaction of its own business. But as for this purpose, it has become necessary for this Court to express an opinion upon the question of their rights, I have given the subject such consideration as the very brief space of time, and the pressure of other matters, have permitted.

By several resolves of the legislature, approved March 17th, 1855, certain proposed amendments to the constitution were submitted to the people. By the adoption of these amendments, the office of sheriff, with others, would be made elective. The people have voted upon the questions, the Governor and Council have counted the returns which were transmitted to the office of the Secretary of State, and it is known that a majority of the inhabitants voting on the questions were in favor of the amendments. The Governor and Council have also made return of the vote to the legislature now in session, though it may well be doubted if the Court can take judicial notice of this fact.

It has been the practice of the legislature, whenever amendments to the constitution have been adopted, to pass a special resolve, declaratory of that fact. And it is said that these amendments will not be in force until that shall be done. On the other hand it is objected that this cannot be so, because, if so, the legislature would have the power, by refusing to pass any such resolve, for a time, to defeat an amendment after the people have adopted it. This reason for the objection is not satisfactory. The Governor and Council might refuse to count the returns,—and yet the consequences which would result from such misconduct are no evidence that action on their part is not necessary. The whole theory of a representative government is based upon the presumption that those who are in official stations will be faithful to the trust committed to them. To deny that power is given, because it might be abused, is to deny all delegated power. But the fallacy of the objection does not prove the truth of the proposition. It becomes necessary, therefore, to examine the various questions which the subject presents.

1. Are the amendments of the constitution now in force?

This question is to be determined by the provisions of the constitution, and whatever action of the legislature, if any, is necessary to carry these provisions into effect. By Article X, section 4, the following proceedings are necessary before an amendment can be in force:—(1) The Legislature, by a vote of two-thirds of both Houses, must "propose the amendment;"—(2) a "resolution must be passed," and sent to the several towns, of which the inhabitants may have due notice that they may "vote on their votes on the question" which is submitted;—(3) and the question must, in some way, be determined, whether "a majority of the inhabitants voting on the question are in favor of such amendment." When these three provisions have been complied with, the amendment, if adopted, is in force, and "becomes a part of the Constitution."

4. In the case now under consideration there is no controversy about the first, or the second. But the constitution itself makes no provision for the manner in which the third point is to be settled. It is manifest that it was intended to leave it to the legislature, whenever amendments should be proposed, to make whatever provision might be thought best to determine whether a majority of the people voting were in favor of them. To whom, then, by the resolves of March 17th, 1855, is this trust committed?

Much of the difference of opinion has arisen, I doubt not, by giving to the word "appear" in the section above named, a meaning it was not intended to convey. Its most common application is—to become known,—and therefore many have supposed that by the provision—"if it shall appear that a majority of the inhabitants voting on the question, are in favor of such amendment, it shall become a part of this constitution"—it was designed that the fact must be announced,—published—before the amendment should take effect.

This cannot be so. Whatever this provision requires is essential to perfect the amendment, and must precede it in point of time; while the publication of it must, from its very nature, follow it. The word, therefore, refers to the adjudication, by whatever tribunal the resolve authorizes to act, and its determination of the question whether a majority of the inhabitants voting on the question have voted in favor of the amendments.

By examining the second resolve it will be seen that it was made the duty of the "Governor and Council" to determine this question. It is true, they were required to make a return of their doings to the legislature. It was necessary that such official notice should be given, because, by the first clause of the first resolve, it was made the duty of the legislature, if the amendments should be adopted, to make a declaration of that fact.

But there is no provision in the resolves requiring the legislature to examine or count the returns. This was to be done by the Governor and Council, not as individuals, but in their official capacity, representing therein the people of the State. To them was committed the trust of adjudicating and deciding the question, upon the evidence to be furnished by the returns, whether the amendments had been adopted,—and their decision was to be final. And when they had counted the returns, and decided upon the vote, then "it appeared that a majority of the inhabitants voting on the questions were in favor of the amendments;" and then the "amendments became a part of the constitution." Their act was the act of the people, who were bound to take notice of it; and thenceforth their rights were to be determined by it. Their return to the legislature, and the action of that body thereupon, were designed for other objects; and by their action, or by their neglect, the validity of the amendments can in no way be affected.

2. The amendments operating upon the office of Sheriff are two in number. In article V, section 8, the Governor has hitherto been empowered to "nominate, and with the advice and consent of the Council, to appoint" persons to fill various offices, among which was that of "Sheriff." This by the amendment has been "stricken out." The appointing power for this office no longer is held by the executive, except under the amendment, in which it is restricted to cases of "vacancy," occurring by death, resignation or otherwise.

The other amendment operating upon this office is by adding the following section to Article IX.

"Section 9. Sheriffs shall be elected by the people of their respective counties, by a plurality of votes given in on the second Monday of September, and shall hold their offices for two years from the first day of January next after their election."

It is obvious that by these provisions the Executive now has no authority to remove a sheriff from his office by the appointment of another in his stead.

3. What effect have these amendments upon the Sheriffs now in office?

None whatever, except to limit the time when their term shall expire. Persons who may hereafter be elected to that office, will be commissioned from and after the 1st day of next January; and all commissions previously granted will expire on that day.

It has been suggested that if the amendment does not operate upon the Sheriffs now in office, until its term period, then the office in the meantime is subject to the provision of Article IX, Section 6, which is that "the tenure of all offices which are not, or shall not be, otherwise provided for, shall be during the pleasure of the Governor and Council." But it is manifest that the "offices" to which alone this section applies, are those which the Governor and Council have the power to fill. And the amendment which annulled the power of the governor and council to "appoint sheriffs," at the same time removed the office from the operation of this section. The tenure of no office can be during the pleasure of the executive, after the executive has been absolutely divested of the power to fill such office by appointment. The amendment to Article V, Section 8, does thus take away from the governor and council the appointing power, except to fill vacancies.

4. But it has been said that the amendment itself causes a vacancy in the office. How can this be? The present Sheriff of this county holds a commission which will not expire, according to its tenor, until February 21st, 1858. It was issued by authority, competent at the time it bears date to make this grant. It contains important privileges and powers, and will continue to run on, uninterrupted for the whole term of four years, unless it is sooner terminated by the executive, or by the amendment of the constitution. The only way in which the Governor and Council could terminate it would be by claiming the power to appoint another person. Of this power they have been divested by the amendment. And the only way in which the amendment itself operates upon it is by providing for the election of another, whose term may commence on the first day of January 1857. Then the commission will expire by the operation of the new provisions added to the constitution; but until then the rights originally granted will remain, and, unless forfeited by neglect or misconduct, cannot be taken away.

Gen. Scott's Annual Report as General-in-Chief of the Army has been laid before Congress. He reviews the condition of the Army and recommends a Retired List similar to that of the Navy. In this connection he remarks:

Some forty or fifty officers, mostly in the higher commissions, rendered non-effective by the infirmities of age, by wounds or chronic diseases, now press downwards into lethargy and then despair; thrice the number of juniors are sighing for the increased rank, which would, before they are too old, increase the field of distinguished usefulness. How far the undersigned may himself be considered one of the superannuated he knows not; but if any vigor remains, he will not cease to urge a remedy for the great evil in question.

He also recommends an increase of compensation in proportion to the length of service to all officers of lower grade than Lieut. General. Every additional three years service should, he thinks, be attended with a slight increase. As promotion in our Army in time of peace is so slow to secure the increased pay due to increased experience and faithful service. He also recommends revision of the Articles of War and Pension Laws.

From Kansas.—A telegraphic dispatch gives intelligence of a bloody collision between the free State and pro-slavery settlers of Kansas, which very probably may lead to a civil war in that territory. The recent declaration of peace between the two parties was evidently but a hollow one on the part of the border ruffians. Of this we have evidence not only from free Statesmen, but from the pen of Hon. David R. Atchison, an ex-Senator of the United States, and leader of the Missouri ruffians. Two letters recently written by him are published in the Atlanta (Ga.) Examiner. The date of the first letter is not given, but in it Mr. Atchison says, "We are in a constant state of excitement here, (Platte city.) Our persons and property are not for a moment safe; and yet we are forbid, by the respect we owe our friends elsewhere, by respect for the cause in which we are engaged, to forbear. This state of things cannot last." He makes an urgent appeal to the citizens of Georgia for armed recruits, and says:

"Let your young men come forth to Missouri and Kansas! Let them come well armed, with money enough to support them for twelve months, and determined to see this thing out! One hundred true men will be an acquisition. The more, the better. I do not see how we are to avoid civil war. Come it will! Twelve months will not elapse before war, civil war of the fiercest kind, will be upon us. We are arming and preparing for it. Indeed, we of the border counties are prepared. We must have the support of the South. We are fighting the battles of the South. Our institutions are at stake. You far Southern men are now out of the reach of the war, but if we fail, it will reach your own doors, perhaps your hearths. We want men, armed men. We want money, not for ourselves, but to support our friends who may come from a distance. D. R. Atchison.

P. S. I would not be astonished if this day laid the ground-work for a guerilla war in Kansas. I have heard rumors of strife and battle at Leavenworth, seven miles from this place, but there is nothing definite. I was a peace maker in the difficulty lately settled by Gov. Shannon, but I will never again counsel peace. D. R. A."

In a letter of Dec. 15th, Mr. Atchison holds the following language:

Kansas and Missouri have the same latitude, climate and soil, and should have the same institutions. The peace and prosperity of both depend upon it. Kansas must have slave institutions, or Missouri must have free institutions; hence the interest the "border ruffians" take in Kansas affairs.

Shipping in Maine.

The following statement shows the tonnage of vessels built in Maine during the year ending June 30, 1855, and the tonnage owned in the several Collection Districts, June 30, 1855:

	Built.	Owned.
Bath	56,920.45	175,258.65
Waldoboro	49,678.06	145,896.15
Portland	25,800.12	137,317.55
Belfast	25,343.49	70,762.37
Castine	6,664.32	53,955.50
Ellsworth	10,398.85	47,977.25
Eastport	17,999.90	44,504.06
Bangor	7,143.83	41,297.59
Machias	6,674.59	34,216.82
Wiscasset	10,449.87	26,929.50
Kennebunk	7,253.36	17,420.42
Saco	1,579.33	7,167.57
York		1,891.59
	215,904.73	809,095.22

At an estimated value of fifty dollars per ton, the above would amount to the round sum of ten millions of dollars. But of the large number of vessels built in Maine, and sold out of the state, the builders generally retain an interest. We think the aggregate of this interest may be calculated at ten millions. Thus we may put it down as a fact, that Maine owns a commercial fleet, the total value of which is fifty millions of dollars. No European power, except Great Britain, has so large a commercial marine. The motto of the state, "Dirigo," well illustrates her leading position in the commerce of the world.—Argus.

Enchanting Poison. The New Haven Palladium says:

"About the time that Prof. Siliman, Jr., searched for the poison, which Mrs. Wakeman alleged to have been in the cakes which she ate and which poison, she said, was put in them by Amos Hunt, 'the Man of Sin,' she stated to Sly that the nature of the poison had been revealed to her. The Professor told Sly that it would save him some trouble if she would reveal it to him. She therefore sent by Sly a catalogue of the ingredients, which, she said, Hunt had compounded for the purpose of throwing his enchantments upon her. The medly reminds of the witch scene in Macbeth. It is as follows:

The Brains of a Man.
The Oil of Men's Bones.
The Eyes of Dogs.
Heart of Dogs.
The Brains of Cats.
The Eyes of Roosters.
Garden Basil.
Topaz Stone, Copper, Zinc and Platina, and certain portions of common Toad."

Density of Different Seas.—Surprise has been expressed that vessels which go direct to Sebastopol take a smaller cargo than if they were only to go to Constantinople, or that they diminish their cargo in the latter port before entering the Black Sea. The reason is this:—The density of the water of different seas is more or less considerable, and the vessels which sail in them sink in the water more or less, according to that density. The density arises from the quantity of salt contained in the water, and consequently, the salter the sea is, the less a vessel enters it. And too, as the more salt a vessel carries, the deeper she penetrates the water, it follows that the more the water is salt the greater is the quantity of sail that can be carried. Now the Black Sea being sixteen times less salt than the Mediterranean, a vessel which leaves Toulon or Marseilles for Sebastopol must take a smaller cargo than that which only goes to Constantinople, and a still smaller one if it is to enter the Sea of Azoff, which is eighteen times less salt than the Mediterranean. It is known that the Mediterranean is quite as salt as the Atlantic, once more than the Adriatic, five times more than the Caspian Sea, twelve times more than the Sea of Marmora. The Dead Sea contains more salt than any other sea; it is asserted that two tons of its water yield 560 lbs. of salt and magnesia.—Galignani.

A Change of Programme at Washington.—It will be seen by our telegraphic despatches from Washington, that Mr Richardson has withdrawn himself as a candidate for Speaker, and that the Administration caucus has nominated Mr Orr of S. C. in his place—upon the same platform, however, (the denunciation of Know Nothingism included, we presume,) which governed the selection of Richardson at the first caucus. The "South American" Fullerites demur, of course, at a fusion upon Orr, with such a platform—but are willing to go it upon "broad national grounds." The House does not appear to have voted yesterday, (23d.)

Kansas. The Executive Committee for the election of State officers have issued a proclamation certifying that the constitution framed by the convention held at Topeka on the 23d of October, was adopted by vote of the people of Kansas taken on the 15th ult; the proclamation also declares "the same to be the Constitution of the State of Kansas." The same committee also proclaim that a majority of votes was given in favor of a "General Banking Law," and also in favor of "the passage of laws by the General Assembly providing for the exclusion of free negroes from the State, of Kansas—the result of such vote to operate as instructions to the first General Assembly upon that subject.

The Executive Committee have given notice that a deputation, consisting of Messrs. Lane, Emery, Hunt, Goodin, Dickey, Holiday and Sampson, have been appointed to visit the United States, to plead before the people the cause of Kansas, and to convey and lay before Congress the Constitution of the state recently adopted by the people of Kansas. The deputation are instructed to visit and address, early in February, besides the people of Western States, Worcester, Lowell, Springfield, Salem and Boston, Massachusetts; Hartford and New Haven, Connecticut; Providence, Rhode Island; Portland, Augusta and Bangor, Maine; Concord, New Hampshire; Burlington, Vermont.

A Drunkard's Speech.—The London Empire states that a drunkard found his way a short time since into a temperance meeting.—One of the speakers was defending the principle of moral suasion, and was, also, expatiating upon its effects upon the drunkard. The inebriate interrupted the speakers and broke forth in the following language:

"'Moral suasion to drunkards?' it's no use and it's worse than no use. I know it, I tell you I am one of 'em, I am, I am, and I know."

The whole room was startled into perfect silence. In the pause the very fire seemed to hold its breath:

"I've been a drunkard these ten years. You know it. You've seen me loafing about your streets ten years, and you've had a chance to try your moral suasion. And I ain't the only chance, God knows. Yes, and you've tried it too. You know I used to want to knock it off. You haven't failed to say kind words, and try your suasion. You all try it. The very man that sells me rum, says, when he pours me out a glass, 'Come, come, Jerry, you'd better not drink any more.'"

His profanity was terrible, but the equally terrible earnestness of his speech suffered not even the chairman to reprove it.

"You think a drunkard needs persuading.—There's not a drunkard in the country that's worth saving who doesn't wish two hours out of three, every day of his life, that he could knock off. They've got moral suasion. What they want is help, help, God, God, help, force, force to back it up. You've seen me—you see me every day sitting around—loafing. You've thought I've been asleep, thinking of nothing. Outside I've been dead as a heap of ashes, inside I've been afire.

"When a man's a going to sell himself to the devil, cool and easy—money down—and wants to drive a bargain, it may do to talk of moral suasion to him. But when the devil's caught a careless fellow—and's got him tight in his clutches—as he holds us, and we writhing and squirming; then when you come along and think we need moral suasion to get us away, you're fools. And with some of you, it's worse than that. Some of you know better, and when you say so and quote scripture to it you are fools."

Singular Freak of a Lunatic. A German, an insane man, was arrested on Friday on one of our wharves by police officer Boardman.—His insanity consisted in his having purchased a dory for $4.50, which he had fitted out in a peculiar manner with oars and sails, and provision sufficient only for a fortnight's subsistence. He had covered the boat over with canvass, except one spot which he had left open in order to admit his person. It was his intention to put to sea in a day or two in this boat shopping, as he expressed himself to Dr. Stedman, who was called to examine him, to reach Europe in twenty-two days. On the Doctor asking him how he should supply himself with food when what he had now was consumed, he said he had a little money to buy more.—Whether he had a notion that a half way house was to be found on the great deep does not appear. His insanity would seem to have arisen from homesickness—not an uncommon cause of mental malady among our emigrants.—Boston Traveller.

Newspaper Profits.—We learn from good authority, and are glad to itemize the fact, that the net profits of the Tribune newspaper for the past year amount to $95,000, and that the profits of the Herald exceed $75,000. The Courier & Enquirer and the Journal have probably each a balance of about $50,000 on the right side of the Ledger, and the Commercial Advertiser $25,000. The Times, if we may judge from the alacrity with which Mr. Jones accepted Mr. Harper's offer to sell thirty shares at $50,000, is also doing a good business; and the Express, we are happy to learn, has found the past year one of unprecedented prosperity, and the same is said to be true of the Post and News.

The Sunday press has gone ahead in advertising patronage and circulation and the Despatch, the Times, the Atlas, the Courier and the Mercury, are making, we are assured, from $5000 to $10,000 a year.—N. Y. Mirror.

When to Wear India Rubbers.—We have noticed that many persons wear India rubber overshoes in cold dry weather to keep their feet warm. This is an injurious and evil practice. India rubber shoes are very comfortable and valuable for covering the feet during wet, sloppy weather; but they never should be worn on any other occasion; their sole use should be to keep out water. They should, therefore, be put off whenever the wearer enters a house, and be worn as little as possible, because they are air-tight, and both retain and restrain the perspiration of the feet. The air cannot be excluded from them, or from any other portion of the body, for any length of time, without sensibly affecting the health. It is our opinion that no habit tends more to good health than clean feet and clean dry stockings, so as to allow the free perspiration of the nether extremities.—Scientific American.

Big Bowling. Two successive strings of ten pins were rolled lately in San Francisco, in each of which the roller succeeded in knocking down three hundred pins in ten frames. In order to accomplish this, twenty-four consecutive ten-strikes were made, and it is a feat seldom executed by any player. The party rolling was betting five dollars on each ball, which was to discharge ten pins or less.—Journal.

LEGISLATURE OF MAINE.

Monday, Jan. 21.

Senate. On motion of Mr. Robinson,

Ordered, That the committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the expediency of submitting to the people the question of so amending the Constitution, as that all State and County officers, now elected by a plurality vote, shall be elected by a majority.

House. On motion of Mr. Pike of Topsfield,

Ordered, That the committee on the Judiciary be directed to inquire into the expediency of repealing an act entitled "An act in addition to an act in relation to elections, approved October 2, 1840," approved Feb. 12, 1855.

Acts approved by the Governor—An act to repeal an act entitled "An act annulling the naturalization powers of Courts in this State."

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act regulating the suffrage of naturalized citizens."

An act additional concerning the Supreme Judicial Court and its jurisdiction.

Passed to be engrossed—Resolve authorizing State loan.

Petitions referred—Joel Richardson and als., of Oldtown and vicinity, for a law, giving persons aiding in the manufacture of boards, shingles, clapboards and other short lumber, a lien on the same, to secure to them the amount due for services; Directors of Kennebec Log Driving Company, for two booms on Kennebec river; Directors of Bath Bank for increase of capital stock; Simon F. Walker for remuneration for services and costs incurred on warrants issued by Bangor Police Court; Gideon Mayo and als., in relation to Penobscot Railroad Company; H. K. Baker and als., of Hallowell and John Davis and als., of Chelsea, for bridge from Hallowell to Chelsea.

After the adjournment of the House, on Friday, the following petition was read to that body, and we are happy to state with a success equal to its merits as a literary document, and the merits of the case itself:—Age.

To the Great Sachem of the "Pale Faces" and to his "pale faced" Councillors, and to the honorable Chiefs of all the pale faced tribes, both members of the House as well as of the Senate, in the Legislative Wigwam at Augusta, by the will of all the tribes assembled. Mitchel Saukabasin, of the Ancient and Honorable Penobscot Tribe of Indians, resident on the Banks of the Penobscot River, principally concentrated at Oldtown Island, sends Greeting:

Fathers—May the Great Spirit smile upon your councils, and may your council fires burn never so brightly, illuminating all the hunting grounds and fields of maize in this Commonwealth. Whilst you Sanops, are devising ways and means for spinning out the session, and thus "pocketing the Eagles thereof," may the squaws and pappooses left in your wigwams be kept from all harm. May venison and all kinds of game abound to them as is does to you.—Deep snows now cover the ground, so deep that in old times, when "the country was new and injuns thick," Mitchell Saukabasin would have been many weary hours in compassing the distance from Bangor to Augusta, but now, by virtue of fire and steam, he comes in a few hours, but, and which brings him to a point, Mitchell Saukabasin has to pay his fare in the cars, and his board just as any man who is not a "Native American."

Your petitioner is too old to dig, and "to beg he is ashamed." Formerly possessed of considerable money, he put it into the Church then building by his tribe, and although all the old Sachems, Lewis Atteis, John Neptune, and Peol Atteon, and Soph. Alexis promised to return it from the State appropriation for "poor injuns," he hasn't seen any returns as yet, and probably, as he is verging upon three score and ten, the period of life allotted to man, (both white and copper colored) he never will see any symptoms of remuneration.

Mitchell Saukabasin prides himself upon his character for integrity and honesty; he has hunted and fished through the forests and on the rivers and brooks of this State, and now that his sight is failing, and the infirmities of age creeping upon him, he feels that his white friends would esteem it a favor to repay the copper colored Native in part for the many wrongs perpetrated upon his race—once "monarchs of all they surveyed," now none so poor as to do them reverence.

When Mitchell Saukabasin was rich in "wampum," and "beads," and "skins of beasts," and "oil of fishes," a pale face never was driven from his wigwam fire, but always shared his venison and his trout.

Always the white men's friend, this appeal is to decide whether the white man is his friend or not.

The small sum of one dollar, Federal currency, from each of you, from the grand Sachem down to the Messenger, would put Mitchell Saukabasin "on his feet again," and diffuse joy and gladness through his family, consisting of a squaw and pappooses.

Your petitioner, although a Native American, is not a "know nothing," in the common acceptation of that term; he thinks that all men should "be free and equal," and that "one man is as good as another," and often much better.

Small favors will be thankfully received and larger ones in proportion.

The Great Spirit will and does smile upon the benevolent.

Given at Oldtown, in the County of Penobscot, on this fifteenth day of January, 1856.

A Psalm of Life.

BY A BOSTON DOCTOR OF DIVINITY.

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Slavery's but an people dream,
For I've learned it, (in my slumbers,)
That things are not what they seem.

All the Southern coast I've run by,
And believe, since I came back,
"Do the man as you'd be done by,"
Was not spoken of the black.

To eat, and sleep, and laugh at sorrow,
Is the negro's end and way;
And so to live, that each to-morrow
Find him where he was to-day.

Cotton's great and conscience fleeting,
What this pity for the slave?
Sold, and starved, with moderate beating,
He's better fitted for the grave.

Trust not in "Uncle Tom," though pleasant,
Believe not naughty Mrs. Stowe,
For I've been South, and am, at present,
Inclined to think she does not know.

The master's sorrow should remind us
How we should feel some summer day,
Should we, departing, leave behind us
Our favorite coachman run away;

A coachman, whom, perhaps, another
Preaching in a solemn strain,
Some grave D. D., or Reverend brother,
Catching, might send back again.

Slavery's triumphs still pursuing,
Triumphs which exalt our State;
While the South is up and doing,
Let the North submit and wait.

Dumas and General B were dining in Paris at the house of a mutual friend. The conversation turned upon the existence of a God. "Oh," said the general, "I never think about that, one way or the other." "General," said Dumas, "I have two stag hounds at home who share your sentiments exactly—they never think of it either.

A firm in Worcester advertise 4000 barrels of flour, on consignment, comprising the choicest brands, at from fifty cents to a dollar less than current prices. This looks like a premonitory symptom of a decline in breadstuffs.

We learn from a correspondent, that there is a large party "on the other side of the Hoosac Mountain" waiting to see the great boring machine come through.—Post.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The Great Remedy for CONSUMPTION, and all other Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

The greater the value of any discovery, the higher it is in the esteem of the public and so much in proportion is that public liable to be imposed upon by the spurious imitations of ignorant, designing and dishonest men. Now that this preparation is well known to be a more certain cure for incipient CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, LIVER COMPLAINT, COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, and similar affections, than any other remedy known, there are found those so villainously wicked as to concoct a spurious, and perhaps a poisonous mixture, and try to palm it off as the genuine Balsam.

This is to caution dealers, and the public generally against purchasing any other than that having the written signature of I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Prepared only by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by their agents. j24 2aw&wlw Holloway's Ointment and Pills the most celebrated Remedies for the Cure of Sore Arms. Samuel Wentworth of Norway, Maine, was for many years afflicted with sore arms. There were four different ulcers on them, and the trying nature of his business (a bootmaker) made him so much worse, that despite of his wishes he was compelled to relinquish it. He tried various remedies, and they failed to benefit him. However, about 13 weeks ago at the recommendation of friends, he had recourse to Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which very soon made him better, and he called on Professor Holloway, four weeks since, to show him his arms, which were quite well, and with scarcely the scars perceptible.

To the Hon. Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled.

THE undersigned respectfully represent, that the public interest requires that a Boom should be established at the Log Eddy, so called, near the mouth of the Mattawamkeag river, for the protection of lumber floating down said river, particularly short lumber, juniper timber and knees, they therefore request that they may be incorporated into a company by the name of the Log Eddy Boom Company, with the right to take such a toll for all timber rafted out of said Boom as you in your wisdom may see fit to establish, and with all powers and duties incident to similar corporations. To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled.

THE undersigned, interested in the lumber business on the Penobscot river, respectfully represent, that their interests require that they should have the power and right to pick up and raft and take away their logs and lumber found anywhere in the river, or on the shores, or in the coves or eddies, and not driven into the main Penobscot Boom, so as to be safe from floods and freshets, without being required to pay any toll or boomage thereon. LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE

AFRICA
AT NEW YORK.

New York, Jan. 23.

The Royal Mail steamship Africa from Liverpool on the 9th, arrived at her dock in this city this morning at 9 o'clock.

Her advices contain nothing new of importance. The peace question remains unchanged, and later accounts were merely an extension of the peace rumors brought by the previous steamer.

Russia's answer to the last proposition cannot arrive before the 10th, and will probably be some days later, and it is expected neither to contain absolute assent nor refusal, but will make counter proposals, to be settled by a new conferences.

The feeling in England continues warlike, and in France it is again becoming so.

Russia continues to make incessant preparations for war.

Nothing of importance from England.

Russia.

Nothing definite is yet known from St. Petersburg. Speculations continue as contradictary as ever.

Interviews had taken place between Count Nesselrode and Prince Esterhazy, but the main question had not been discussed. The most that is expected from Russia is a modified counter proposition, such as may insure further negotiations and delay.

In the meantime, the tone of the French government becomes more warlike, while Russian preparations to continue the conflict are larger than ever.

Bavaria sends a special envoy to St. Petersburg, to support the Saxon Envoy.

It is again confidently asserted, that Russia will submit the peace propositions to the German Diet, and call on the Diet to support them.

The grand war council at St. Petersburg was principally engaged on questions relative to fortifying the strategetic points of the Empire. The fortifications of Kiew will be finished before the close of the winter.

The railroad from Moscow to St. Petersburg is to be protected by redoubts placed at intervals along the line, each redoubt to be occupied by a battalion of militia.

Crimea.

Crimean dates are to the 25th ult.

The Russians have increased their fortifications over Inkermann, and unmasked new batteries at the left of the Tchernaya.

Gen. Pellissier remains in the Crimea.

Gen. Martimpre will act as his proxy in Paris, at the War Council.

No injury has been done to the war ships by the recent storms.

Asia.

The Russian army took position at Kars Dec 8, the troops being quartered in the town, leaving a small detachment of Cossacks occupying the fortifications at Soubuly Dagh.

At Zenekeen, a village of Road Erzeroum, the Russians had collected large stores of provisions.

The Russian General is apprehensive of an attack upon Kars by Selim Pacha, consequently he has concentrated all his available forces at that point.

Selim Pacha was encamped in the mountains of Dereh Foynor.

A Russian attack on Erzeroum is not considered probable at present, in consequence of the exhaustion of the troops and the state of the roads.

Omar Pacha had arrived at Batoum. His army had suffered much from lack of provisions before reaching Kutais, and being unable to proceed, he deemed it prudent to return.

The fall of Kars had rendered Omar Pacha very unpopular at Constantinople.

Gen. Williams had arrived at Gumri.

The Council of War at Constantinople are directing all their efforts to the defence of Erzeroum and Trebizonde.

Advices from Ochotsk state that the Allied fleet quitted the gulf without finding the cannon buried by the Russians.

Miscellaneous.

A Paris letter, alluding to a recent report that the U States had made a treaty with the Shah of Persia, guaranteeing his territory on the Persian Gulf, says:—That no such treaty has been made, yet it is certain that the most friendly advances have been made, and it is unfortunate that at this moment Russia and America are intriguing with the Shah, a suspension of Persian diplomatic relations with England has taken place.

Much excitement exists at Rome from a report that Mexico has suppressed its Legation in Rome, and withdrawn its Minister, the archives of the office being already packed up.

London, Jan 8th, Lord Panmure has this day received a despatch of which the following is a copy, addressed to his lordship by Gen Sir William Codrington, K.C.B.:

"Sebastopol, Dec. 25th. My Lord—Notwithstanding the recent severe weather, the thermometer a few nights ago having fallen nearly to zero, the general state of health of the army has continued good. The roads are in fair working order, and though the efficiency of the locomotive engines was impaired by the frost, the damage has been made good.

The final operations on the docks have been somewhat delayed on our side by the influx of water and by the freezing of pumps.

The firing on the northern side of the harbor continued and it is at times heavy, but the casualties, I am happy to say, are few.

There has been no movement of importance on the part of the enemy, in our neighborhood of late.

There has been no movement of importance on the part of the enemy, in our neighborhood of late.

A detachment of French troops surprised a Cossack post near Kilon, a few days ago killing several men and taking the rest prisoners.

The general drill of the army makes good progress."

Baltic Preparations.

The naval authorities of Cherbourg have been ordered to arm three screw liners and three sailing frigates, which are to be ready for the opening out of the campaign of the Baltic in April next. In addition to these 3 ships are to be fitted out with all possible despatch. Cherbourg is to arm the war screw transport Tonne of 1200 tons.

The vessel of the Iceland station, had the bomb vessels and the twelve steam gun boats which have returned from the last campaign in the Baltic, are to be part of the formidable expedition which is to operate in that Sea next spring.

The news from Sweden states that General Block, minister of war in Norway and Commander in Chief of the army has been directed to organize the Norwegian troops in concert with the head of the war department at Stockholm.

The Swedish Journal reports under date of Stockholm, Dec 22, "Activity unexampled reigns in every manufactory for producing articles necessary to the equipment of an army."

The Colonels of all the regiments received orders to supply their troops with everything necessary to prepare them for marching at the first signal.

The order was given secretly, but it was in its nature impossible of concealment. All leaves of absence are refused to officers.

Everybody here believes that in case the Allies should open the war with vigor in the Baltic next spring, our government will feel itself compelled to take an active part therein.

Latest.

London, 9th.—The English funds yesterday experienced a rally of 3-8 at opening, but a relapse subsequently took place—closing on Monday's prices. Money was easy, and no good demand at 3 per cent. Government securities at Paris 3per cents, closed at a slight decline. Foreign exchange generally better.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

In the House Mr Rusk, offered a resolution expressing the sense of the House that if existing candidates would withdraw after to-day, the obstacle to an organization would be removed.

The House refused by a tie vote to lay the resolution on the table.

The House refused to order the main question to be put, and accordingly the subject goes over till to-morrow. Adjourned.

The democrats went into caucus immediately after the adjournment of the House, and after two hours deliberation, Mr. Richardson having withdrawn, Mr. Orr was unanimously nominated as the democratic candidate for Speaker, on the principles which have governed the selection of Richardson at the first caucus.

A proposition to vote for the plurality rule in case Messrs Banks and Fuller, in addition to Mr Richardson, shall withdraw, was rejected.

The Americans meanwhile held a caucus in one of the committee rooms. They are willing to withdraw Fuller, but insist on an organization on broad national grounds, and will strive to effect that object.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs: "The official advices received by the American do not in any way change our friendly relations with England. Mr. Buchanan writes that no real prospects of peace are entertained by the ministry, and England is preparing the largest fleet ever floated, for operations against Russia in the spring. Louis Napoleon is still anxious to extricate himself from the war, having obtained all the desired prestige of the occasion.

The President communicated to the Senate to-day, in executive session, the letter of Lord John Russell, of Jan. 19, 1856, to Mr Crampton, and which was the same submitted to Mr. Everett, when Secretary of State. It declares that the British Government intends seriously to carry out the Clay on-Lower treaty, and to assume no sovereignty, directly or indirectly, in Central America. The Senate has removed the injunction of secrecy, and the letter will be published.

The Government has received no official information as to the recent bloody outrage announced by telegraph. Several Senators to-day informally conferred on the policy of advising the President to send a military force to Kansas, to preserve peace, and to protect the territory from Missouri invaders. Southern members predict that civil war is inevitable in a short time."

LOCKETS

THE BEST ASSORTMENT OF

GOLD LOCKETS

that can found in the city, is kept by JORDAN, the Daguerreotypist, at

No. 2 Smith's Block.

Lockets with four pictures, called the Family Locket, are very beautiful.—Call and see them.

People coming in from the country, if not aware of the fact, should take notice that it is nevertheless true that he sells Lockets with a Daguerreotype set in it for less money than the Locket can be bought of any jeweller in the city.

His long practice in the beautiful art of Daguerreotyping enables him to produce likenesses, which for accuracy and life-like appearance cannot fail to give satisfaction. dec21 tf

KENNEDY'S

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The Greatest of the Age!

MR KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value all within twenty miles of Boston

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the system of biles

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing upon the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system yet it is now a fixed fact If you have a humor it has to start There are no ifs nor ands about it suiting some cases but not yours He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts He gave it to children a year old to old people of sixty, and has seen puny looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle

To those who are subject to sick headache one bottle will always cure it It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week — There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to

No change of diet ever necessary Eat the best you can get and enough of it

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

—FOR—

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from Excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum Scald head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed, whether in town, country, hospital or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations It is therefore of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Buchu, and to devise the most eligible form for their exhibition The experiments have resulted most favorably and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made Two table spoonsfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup of Sarsaparilla or decoction as usually made.

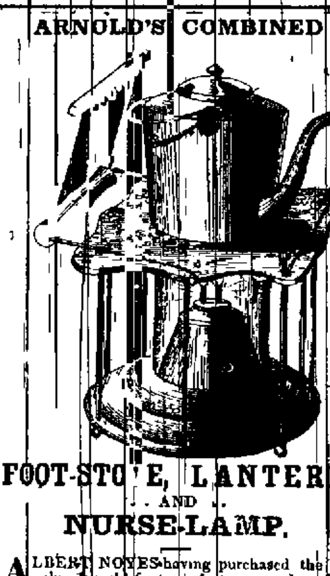
ARNOLD'S COMBINED



FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN, AND NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public

As a FOOT STOVE it answers an excellent purpose as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling. It is heated by an oil, alcohol or fluid lamp, the flame of which is protected from every external object

As a LANTERN, it answers all the usual purposes and is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage

As a NURSE LAMP and in cases of sickness, it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm beside giving the light desired, and for cooking in small quantities, For making tea, &c , it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a flat iron heat in the same length of time

In fact, the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one. No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say any thing more respecting its adaptability to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can all see at once for themselves.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt Daniel Abbott Brooklin, Maine July 16 1853, says 'I was taken sick one year ago last April upon my passage from Havana to Charleston S C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of Hoofland's German Bitters in it I sent for some immediately, This was about 10 o clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose and another at 6 o'clock The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man — I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston and the West India Islands ever since I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it

Jos. B Hall & Co , Presque Isle, Aroostook Co Maine, April 24 1854 say We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters We think Mr Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story

Messrs Jos B Hall & Co —Gentlemen— In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years — She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters WILLIAM CLARK

Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co , Me

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases
